William Proxmire (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding. Present: Senator Proxmire; and Representatives Conable and Brown. Also present: John R. Stark, executive director; Courtenay M. Slater, economist. Chairman Proxmire. The subcommittee will come to order. This morning, we are beginning an examination of the effectiveness of the Nation's criminal justice system. The Subcommittee on Economy in Government has, of course, a strong and continuing interest in the efficiency of all major Federal programs. I use the term efficiency in its broadest sense to refer to the allocation of available resources among various components of a program so as to produce the most effective overall result. Our examinations of other Federal programs have often revealed examples of gross misallocation of resources. In some cases these misallocations arise from legislative restrictions on the use of funds. Other misallocations...
