FUN WITH ENTREES GETTING TO THE HEART OF COOKING FUN WITH FOOD

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 154 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Why purchase and have make you way through an all-encompassing cookbook (at additional cost) when you are only interested in finding great recipes for yourself or your guest dinners. Other than chapters that deal with basics of cooking, this book concentrates on entres and hearty soups that can be entres or side dishes. Cooking great meals has three main foes first, of course, is a lack of time second is the normal multi-dish cooking with the need to have all dishes ready at the same time third is the chore of cleaning several pots, pans or bowls after meal or the entertaining is over One helpful solution to the time dilemma might be the minutes meal concept. Another may be the almost-homemade cooking style that uses many off the shelf ingredients to simplify the cooking process. The main disadvantage to both of these methods can be that neither of them does much to address the time that is required for cleanup. However, a reduction in cooking time matters little if there is still a substantial cleanup routine to go through once the preparation and service is finished. This is how Fun With Entres comes to the rescue. The cookbooks premise is a wide variety of classic and gourmet-level meals and soups that can be prepared (usually) in a single pot or pan in order to mitigate the cleanup routine. Over time I have accumulated a number of recipes that are conducive to being prepared in a single vessel, and I have reworked others in order for them to fit into this pattern. The result is a cookbook that simplifies food preparation and reduces the cleanup to (usually) a...
