We believe that the great practical value of the results at which we aim, although freely admitted by the friends of genuine progress everywhere, must be recognized with especial heartiness in a community Like our own, where material prosperity and intellectual advancement are felt to be inseparably associated; and we feel assured that the magnitude of the plans by which it is proposed to secure these great public benefits, instead of forming an obstacle to their attainment, will but invite our fellow-citizens to a liberality proportioned to the interests to be subserved. In the recent progress of the Industrial Arts, - including commerce and agriculture, as well as the manufacturing, and, more strictly, mechanical pursuits, - we meet with daily-increasing proofs of the happy influence of scientific culture on the industry and the civilization of nations.
