

The Chicago medical recorder Volume 22

By -

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 220 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.5in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1902 Excerpt: . . . a horse vehicle of any sort can be saved considerable on the price by applying to the editor. The city council of Des Moines has closed all churches and theaters, and prohibited all public gatherings on account of smallpox. The seventh annual meeting of the Western Ophthalmologic and Oto-Laryngologic Association will be held in Chicago April 10, 11 and 12. Dr. Hugh T. Patrick sails for Europe on the Kronprinz Wilhelm this month. He expects to remain abroad for four months, returning about July 1. One of the Hindoo girls, whose connecting band was severed a short time ago by Dr. Doyen of Paris, died a week after the operation from tuberculosis. Dr. Elbert Wing begs to announce that he will discontinue the practice of medicine April 1st next, and will resume it about October in Los Angeles, California. The violet rays of electric light as...

READ ONLINE
[2.24 MB]

Reviews

Excellent eBook and valuable one. It normally will not price too much. Your daily life span is going to be change once you comprehensive reading this ebook.

-- Ezra Bergstrom

Unquestionably, this is the greatest job by any author. It really is simplistic but shocks inside the fifty percent in the book. I am just pleased to inform you that here is the greatest book i actually have go through within my own existence and could be he greatest ebook for at any time.

-- Elva Kemmer