Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Pickle for the Knowing Ones Timothy Dexter, the author of the following curious and unique production, entitled A Pickle for the Knowing Ones, which is here re-printed verbatim et spellatim from the original edition, was born in Maiden, January 22, 1747. Having served an apprenticeship with a leather dresser, he commenced business in Newburyport shortly after he was one and twenty, and being industrious and economical, he soon found himself in good circumstances. In the year 1770 he married, and receiving a considerable amount of money with his wife, he was thus put in possession of a moderate fortune. In 1776 he had for one of his apprentices the no less eccentric, and afterwards the no less noted Jonathan Plumer, jun., travelling preacher, physician and poet, as he was accustomed to style himself, and of whom we shall hereafter speak. In addition to his regular business of selling leather breeches, gloves soutabel for wimen s ware, c. he engaged in commercial speculations, and in various kinds of business, and was unusually successful. He traded with...
