That means Lucy is off to her favorite place: Pierson Point, Maine, where she spends summers with her family. Pierson Point is where she feels most like herself, and where memories of her mother, who died when Lucy was six, are strong and sacred. But this summer, nothing is the same. Ian, a boy from home in Boston, comes to Pierson Point with his family. Ian is loud, popular, and mean. He and Lucy can t stand each other. To top it off, Dad wants his girlfriend to become a bigger part of Lucy s life.
