Macmillan Pub., Toronto, 1989. Hard Cover in Dust Jacket. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. First. 1989 First Edition HARDCOVER Book in DJ . BRAND NEW from original publisher . Never opened , Never owned, Never marked . Jacket protected in New non-stick clear Mylar sleeve . Excellent Gift Giving quality . Thick book, 424 pages . Poet Irving Layton 's letters may be strong-flavored & acerbic . or juicy & enjoyable . depending on whether they were written in the heat of the moment . or after careful reflection . They might be savoured; or hurled at a Philistine . These eminently readable letters show Layton in every mood . audacious, pugnacious, celebratory, condemnatory, playful, thoughtful . They span 50 years , dating from the 1930s and deal with every major Canadian poet in that period . as well as figures in politics . academe . & the media . They have been selected from more than 4000 pages of correspondence . with hundreds of different people . Layton expresses himself very directly in his letters . they reveal him as a poet intensely concerned with ideas . as well as language . as a teacher encouraging emerging talent . as a friend . or a lover . as a scathing critic . or an outrageous buffoon . Above all . they reveal the complexity of a poet . who was at the forefront of Canadian writing for half a century . These compulsively readable letters have been thoroughly but unobtrusively annotated by Francis Mansbridge in order to make them accessible to the general reader . Irving Layton was born in Rumania in 1912 & was brought to Canada in 1913 . He grew up in Montreal & studied at Macdonald College and McGill University . After graduation...
